From the hottest products to the coolest launches, here's a low-down on the latest in the market this season

TOUCH WOOD

Square Foot provides integrated flooring solutions for every space, while providing superior quality and innovations. They also offer customized solutions for both indoor and outdoor spaces, in which any wood, thickness, surface finish, and dimension can be made to order. The 'Luxus' wood flooring (pictured) is easy to maintain and has a core layer of pine and spruce wood, which allows the flooring to expand and contract with changes in temperature and humidity. SOFT LANDING

Spaces Home & Beyond by the Welspun Group has launched its latest collection of bed linens. The brand offers a wide colour palette, with a set of various textures across the range. The Boho Chic collection (pictured) showcases a melange of stripes and checks inspired by watercolours and ink artworks. These products are fully manufactured by their in-house teams, from spinning yarn to the finished products, thus ensuring the best quality and design. (spaces-bome.com)

WATERWORLD

The 'Just Silence' outdoor whirlpool bath from Villeroy & Boch is the winner of a 2015 iF Design Award in the Bathroom category. The new outdoor whirlpool presents an almost futuristic design with a linear and cubist form, and seats five people in a staggered formation. The individual massage functions can be accessed via a touchscreen control menu. (villeroy-boch.com)

FRENCH OPEN

The second Maison & Objet fair of the year, one of the foremost decor and design events, will be held in Paris from 4–8 September while the Paris Design Week will be from 5–12 September. The January 2015 edition of M&O had over 3,000 brands and 78,000 visitors. The trade show is recognized the world over for the wide range of products on display—from furniture and tableware to textiles and furnishings. (maison-objet.com)
